SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., AUGUST 8, 1914.

RYAN FOR SHERIFF OF SONOMA CO.

A Peace Officer Who Deserves Promotion at the Hands of the People.

RYAN---THE MAN.

To the voters of Sonoma County the Index-Tribune addresses itself, today, in behalf of our aspirant for the office of sheriff.

In urging Joseph F. Ryan to enter the political arena, his friends did not do so with the belief that the weakness in the support of the other candidates for the office of sheriff predestined an easy victory. Ryan's supporters recognized at the outset, as they do at this stage of the campaign, that the personal attributes of the several other aspirants—attributes that count for the real worth of men, for character, honor, integrity—were, in truth, strong points in their favor.

But summing up his points, his friends realized that Deputy-Sheriff Ryan would score high where his opponents, to a man, would fail; they knew that he ranked with these gentlemen as to personal worth, besides possessing qualifications which they had not.

We will not dwell on the details of Mr. Ryan's life, save in so far as it concerns the voters. Suffice it to say he is a loyal Native Son of the Golden West, born in Solano County, and has been a resident of this city for twenty-six years. Not a single blemish soils the pages of this record of years in our midst. As boy and man he has never deviated from the path of rectitude, his life having been characterized by absolute sobriety, unimpeachable integrity, and a fine fidelity to this, his home city, of which he has become a component part. Along business lines he is well fitted to manage the affairs of the office, as he has for years been one of this city's most successful business men. So much for the man.

RYAN---THE OFFICER.

Now, then, let us consider the officer—the qualifications which pre-eminently fit him for the office sought, and which place him in official strength head and shoulders above any one of his opponents.

Deputy-Sheriff Ryan is a man of but few words—so few as to be noteworthy, but in actions he is a host. Slender of physique, yet he is as the Rock of Gibraltar in the face of danger in the performance of his duty. It is an incontrovertible fact that when Officer Ryan has been deputized to search for an offender, and is left to his uninterfered-with resources, he never fails to land his man. He is marvelously fearless, indefatigable—heedless of time or fatigue until his indomitable persistency is rewarded. For sixteen years he has served in the capacity of deputy-sheriff, and has become an alert, trained sleuth. We doubt, nay, we deny that any deputy-sheriff in the State of California has to his credit as many and notable single-handed captures as has Sonoma's Joe Ryan.

From that officer himself, the voters of this county will be naught of the record that was means of the intrepid officer being practically forced into this sheriff's light by friends, his make-up being so entirely free of braggadocio. Quiet reserve and modesty are his predominant traits.

Therefore, before they go to the polls on August 25th, we wish to more fully acquaint residents of Sonoma County who do not know Mr. Ryan, with the exceptional fitness of the man for whom we seek preferment. We want to bring to their notice and consideration a few of his achievements, and to impress the fact that, in every instance, Officer Ryan effected his captures single-handed.

We will recall the case of Alfred De Alfredo, arrested in 1904, in Los Angeles for horse-stealing. During the journey at night across the Mohave Desert, the prisoner effectively feigned illness, making repeated trips to the lavatory. Each time the weary officer held the door to prevent the springing of the lock, but the ruse of the wily prisoner finally worked, and Ryan discovered his man as he disappeared through the window. The fact that the train was moving did not daunt Ryan, and in an instant he had jumped from the platform into an unknown region at two o'clock, a. m. Before dawn the officer had captured his man, who was convicted and sent to the penitentiary.

Louis West, who committed two robberies in 1906, was convicted and given twelve years of penal servitude.

John Reilly, who was convicted and sent to the penitentiary in 1909 for assault with a deadly weapon, was caught by Ryan at night in a box car at El Verano.

A. D. Angelo, who stole a horse from the Foster ranch at Lakeville, in 1910, was caught by Ryan and sentenced for five years.

F. Perault robbed a box car at Schellville in 1910, was caught by Ryan in the Napa hills, convicted and sent to the penitentiary.

A. L. Baldochi, who murdered a man in Mendocino County, in 1908, was caught by Ryan in the redwoods near the Napa and Sonoma line, and is doing a life sentence.

Wm. Rosse, an ex-convict, was captured by Ryan in 1912, for robbery, and is the only man that officer has ever injured in the many arrests made by him. Rosse broke and ran after being handcuffed, and was shot in the leg before he was subdued. He was convicted and sentenced for eight years.

Jas. Howell, who stole a horse and buggy, in 1913, was captured by Ryan at San Rafael, convicted and sentenced for three years.

For a number of years the robbery of the California Northwestern railway depot had been an annual occurrence, sometimes oftener, and Officer Ryan decided it was high time to put a stop to the intermittent "break-ins," and so at his own expense he installed an alarm system, connecting the depot with his sleeping apartment. This was in 1909. About one week later, as a result of the alarm, Ryan caught E. Nixon robbing the station. Nixon was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

Mr. Ryan is the only officer in the county, as a matter of fact, to install burglar alarms.

Christmas of 1913, this same depot burglar alarm routed Officer Ryan out of bed at two o'clock in the morning. He hurried out alone into the night, and nearing the scene of events, a muffled report announced the blowing up of the safe.

Right here we want to ask a direct question:—how many officers, under the circumstances, would have continued on ALONE into an isolated building, knowing safe-crackers were operating within and unaware how many were on the lookout without? On into the building went Ryan, and later captured Jack Bragg, who entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced for five years.

What think you of bravery such as this, voters of Sonoma County? What sort of a sheriff do you think this Sonoma officer would make?

How's this for another record-breaking case of fearlessness? In 1911, D. P. Cazet was wanted for burglary, and was located by Officer Ryan at Schellville. Cazet was found in bed, one door of his room securely tied, and the other one at the foot of the bed firmly fastened. Kicking this door in, Ryan faced his man, and also a loaded shotgun with muzzle pointed at the door. Before Cazet realized the identity of the intruder, the officer slipped to the side of the bed, grasped his prisoner, forcing the weapon out of and beyond his reach. Part of the time the room was in darkness, as the elderly man, who was guiding the officer's way with a lighted lamp, quite naturally became fearful at times, disappearing to a point of safety, until recalled to his post. This was the most narrow escape Deputy-Sheriff Ryan has ever encountered. Eight years was the sentence imposed on Cazet.

There are other important felony cases in which convictions were secured, but owing to respected family connections in various parts of the county, we refrain from giving names and data.

There are innumerable others of minor importance, and many serious cases reduced to misdemeanor charges. Deputy-Sheriff Ryan has handled his share of insane patients and has, moreover, captured many crooks and other offenders wanted in San Francisco and elsewhere.

Now, then, if a deputy can build up a record for the office of sheriff with such effective work, what think you, would be the record of that office, after a term of years, with Ryan as its chief?

Think you, voters of Sonoma County, that this candidate of ours is qualified for the office of sheriff? Well, we should say yes!

In conclusion, readers of the Index-Tribune, we want to assure you that this is not a paid write-up, but an unsolicited tribute from the editor to the very worthy young man, and notably successful officer, for whose courageousness we have the most profound admiration. Throughout the years, we have maintained faith in his future and firm friendship for this Sonoma boy, and his election we ardently hope for and predict.

WORTHY PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Jean Dutil entered into rest at his home, at El Verano, Wednesday, August 5th. Death came to the much-respected pioneer after a prolonged illness, the end being a peaceful drifting into the sleep that is eternal.

In the passing of Mr. Dutil, the Sonoma Valley has lost one of the worthiest of our pioneer residents. Deceased was a native of France, and aged sixty-nine years. For twenty-five years, Mr. Dutil had resided at El Verano, and for a considerable length of time and up to his death, he conducted one of the favorite family resorts of the valley—The French Cottage.

Besides his devoted wife, Mr. Dutil leaves six children to mourn his demise, viz., Mrs. Jennie Lallanne, Mrs. Adele Purron, Miss Alice, and Eugene, Albert and Emile Dutil. The greatly-beloved husband and father will be sadly missed by the bereaved family to whom he was tenderly attached.

The funeral was held from St. Francis' Catholic Church, yesterday morning, ten o'clock, a large concourse of sorrowing friends assembling to pay a last tribute of affection and respect to deceased.

WHAT OUR NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS ARE DOING.

VINEBURG

Messrs. Fred and Arthur Batto motored to South Vallejo, Wednesday last, on a business trip.

A carload of this season's crop of choice alfalfa meal and alfalfa hay switched in on Batto's Spur last Saturday.

From the amount of fruit being received at the plant of John Batto & Sons, there will certainly be some fruit dried this season by this pioneer firm.

We are glad to state that George Cassidy, who has been quite ill for some weeks, is at the present time improving, which will be good news to his many friends in the valley.

After a week's visit to friends in the bay cities and through Santa Clara County, Misses Adele Andrieux and Louise Batto have returned to their Vineburg home. The ladies were delighted with their trip.

The following Vineburg people motored to the apple carnival, at Sebastopol, Tuesday last, as guests of A. W. Lehrke: Mrs. Sam Black and Miss Nancy Griffith, Messrs. Al Griffith and Frank Kennedy. After pleasantly enjoying the day in the Gravenstein City, the party returned home in one hour and twenty minutes. "Some time."

All of my fair assistants want to join the Red Cross Society as nurses and go to war, but they will not leave until after the election, for they want to vote for Joe Ryan, Joe Berry and Jack Murray. If the war is not over by that time, they will not go on their winter vacation. Leave it to the fair ones. "I should worry."

The Huichica School opened for the fall term on Monday last, August 3d, with Mrs. Carrie Depender teacher. This lady is one of the best-known and experienced teachers in the northern part of the State, and the district is to be congratulated on having secured her services for this her third term in Vineburg.

Marshal Enrico Forni and City Recorder Louis Rouque, both charter members of the Vineburg Gun Club and expert wing shots, took a hunting trip to the Napa side, last Saturday, and secured the limit of doves after three hours' work. Marshal Forni enjoyed himself very much, but says the next time he goes on a bicycle, he is going to walk.

A. W. Lehrke continues to improve his New Vineburg Inn, and has had the barroom decorated in a picturesque and artistic manner. The ceiling border is painted in panels in oil, with reproductions of American and European scenery. An ideal scene is that of a Sonoma Valley vineyard by moonlight, and another the Mission San Jose. The paintings were executed by Hercules Colombo, well-known as an artist on this coast.

Otto E. Sohl, one of our most respected citizens, met with an accident last week. While at work driving a nail, the hammer glanced and the nail struck Mr. Sohl in the eye, causing a painful wound for the time being. We are glad to note that the gentleman is recovering from the effects of the accident.

Alois Andereggen, a well-known citizen of Sonoma Valley is at present head mixologist at New Vineburg Inn, and from his pleasant manner and expert service to patrons, he certainly understands his business.

Can any one tell me who the "Little Lady" is? You all know her. Guess!

EASY JIM.

SCHELLVILLE

Chas. Cutter, our well-known oil dealer, paid Napa a visit recently.

A. C. Douglas left for a brief trip to San Francisco last Saturday.

Mrs. L. S. Simmons, of Sonoma, spent Wednesday at the hospitable Fred Helberg home.

Mrs. J. J. tonier and little daughter left, Tuesday, for a pleasant visit with San Jose relatives.

Petaluma relatives enjoyed a pleasant visit at the Jos. Kechler residence this week.

Jack Watt, of Oakland, passed through here, Sunday, and many friends greeted him.

A. Marcucci and Ed Steiger, of Caliente, were Schellville visitors Friday.

A fire caused by the freight train last Saturday, resulted in the loss of about sixty ton of hay on the Schell ranch. The hay was owned by Tony Jason.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keiser entertained a few neighbors Friday evening of last week. The hours were most enjoyably spent, the ice-cream seeming to touch the right spot.

Mrs. Fred Schell was hostess to the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist-Episcopal Church, Thursday afternoon. Hospitality at the pleasant Schell home is always lavish, and so enjoyably were the hours passed on this occasion that Mrs. Schell's guests, on departing, expressed the hope that such another afternoon was in store for them soon again.

Couldn't the authorities furnish a place for the people to use as a dumping ground for old rubbish and tin cans? Sonoma residents have a dumping ground at the foot of Mountain Cemetery. Why don't they use it? Do they find it easier to drive down the country and deposit their rubbish at the side of Farmer Jinks' fence? Just take a peep at the pile on Napa road, at the bridge east of the mile house! Now and again a few sacks here and there can often be noticed when the day dawns. This certainly does not help to beautify the valley.

HAPPY JACK.

L. V. H. HOWELL FOR TREASURER

L. V. H. Howell, of Sebastopol, was in town, Tuesday, circulating among the voters and increasing his acquaintance in Sonoma. Howell is a candidate for the nomination for county treasurer, has been here several times during the present campaign, and has made a splendid impression with the voters of the town and valley, and it is generally conceded that he will be given very liberal support at the primaries.

Of all the candidates for the various offices, none stands higher as a business man and a gentleman, and a strict integrity. Mr. Howell, in Sebastopol, home town, and in the western and northern sections of the county, where he is best known, Mr. Howell has always been regarded as a foremost citizen. He has enjoyed years of successful business life in Sebastopol and for the past four years has been postmaster there. Another strong point in favor of Mr. Howell is the fact that he comes from a section of Sonoma county, which although rich in resources and an important factor in the county's forward march, has never asked for nor received more in the line of preferment in the distribution of county offices.

We predict for Mr. Howell encouraging support and a strong vote in both town and county at the primaries on the 25th.

Visiting in California

Mrs. Emma Clock, who, up within two years ago, was a successful school teacher of Chico, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Steiger, at Caliente, and within fortnight expects to return to Chico, where a host of friends await her. Mrs. Clock has spent past two years visiting in various parts of California, in order to be in touch with general conditions the west.

A Candidate Worthy of the Support of the People.

We present herewith a portrait of Phil Redmond, of Santa Rosa, candidate for the office of auditor of Sonoma County and we have no hesitancy in commending this worthy young man to the men and women voters for their votes at the primary election on the 25th inst.

Mr. Redmond is well-known all over this county, in which he was born and reared. He is young man of sobriety and fine business capacity, in every way qualified for the position and ought to be elected.

When incapacitated for out-door occupations by being fearfully injured in a train wreck on the Northwestern Railroad some four years ago, which he was fireman and his uncle, Phillip Hyde, the engineer, both stood nobly at their posts of duty, Mr. Hyde being killed with his hand on the throttle, while Mr. Redmond was so severely injured it took over three years for him to recover, but he is now fully recovered.

Will make no mistake in voting for him.

Clarence F. Lea For District Attorney

Clarence F. Lea, who has been the District Attorney of Sonoma County the past eight years, has been prevailed upon by the people of Sonoma County, to enter the primary election for another term in office. There is a reason for this. As Sonoma county's prosecuting officer he has made good, and has been during his incumbency one of the best District Attorneys this county has ever had. Learned in the law, forcible in argument, he has been a terror to evil doers in this county. He has some of the most wealthy and influential criminals known in California. He is a man of pleasing personality, square jawed, and no matter where the lightning strikes, he always did his duty to the people without fear or favor.

Vote for and elect him we assure voters that if you violate the law you will surely do his level best to send you to jail.

Damage a Popular Candidate.

W. Ramage, candidate for county treasurer, is a very popular man, evidenced by the many press notices he is receiving at the county newspapers. The following clipping from Petaluma's leading daily, shows how he stands in that city:

"Genial Jim" Ramage of Santa Rosa recently tossed his "kelly" into the political ring. Jim wants to handle Sonoma county's "mazuma" during the four year period beginning next January, and he is very, very busy telling people he knows and people he doesn't know all about his ambition. He has been in Petaluma frequently of late and has made a host of new friends here which would indicate that other fellows harboring similar and conflicting ambitions will have to "go home" if they get to the door of the county treasurer's office ahead of "Genial Jim."

Mr. Ramage has lived in Sonoma county since 1887, and for the past 14 years has been associated with the Santa Rosa Press Democrat in the capacity of circulation manager. He is past exalted ruler of the Santa Rosa Lodge of Elks, past sashem of Santa Rosa Lodge of Red Men, a prominent Native Son, and all round good fellow. Don't he look it?—Argus.

RE-ELECT BERRY TO OFFICE.

County Assessor Joseph P. Berry was in town, Tuesday, having just returned from the northern end of the county. Mr. Berry is greatly pleased with the support accorded him in Cloverdale and thereabouts, the Cloverdale Reveille at intervals advancing his cause materially.

As a matter of fact, the remarkably fine record made during his tenure of office, won for Mr. Berry the cordial support of the press throughout the county. The Santa Rosa Republican, the Healdsburg papers—the Tribune, Scimitar and Enterprise—the Petaluma Argus and Courier, the Sebastopol Times and others have been staunch advocates throughout the campaign for that able official's re-election.

We have urged from the outset the re-election of Assessor Berry, because of his unusual qualifications for the work of that office, and it is very evident that the press is unanimous in the belief that with the record achieved by the present county assessor, his merit should certainly be recognized by reinstatement in office.

From the Santa Rosa Press-Democrat, whose splendidly-edited columns are exceedingly generous in the support of Assessor Berry, we take the following:

"Mr. Berry is one of the best known men in Sonoma county. He is an attorney by profession. Previous to taking up the law he devoted himself to commercial pursuits. At one time he was manager of the Santa Rosa Lighting company in this city, and the executive ability displayed during his commercial life has served him to good purpose in the official position which he has occupied for the past two years. When Mr. Berry was appointed to the office of county assessor, he entered into the work with hearty interest and a determination to thoroughly familiarize himself with the duties of the position. This he has done, devoting his entire time to the work with the result that the affairs of the office have admittedly been conducted in first-class style, the closest and most careful attention being given to every detail.

"In behalf of Mr. Berry's candidacy it is agreed that the work he has done during the past two years will represent a gain of just two years' time for the people in case he is re-elected to the office he now holds. Any new man going into the office would have to secure the knowledge of property values and inform himself on all the other numerous matters that come up for consideration. Nor is every man fitted for such a position as county assessor. The office requires a man of force and much native ability, both of which qualifications Mr. Berry is admitted to possess."
